

Linnell Stanhope
Business Development
Crowder Construction Company

Linnell has built her career in the construction industry with the last 30 years being in heavy civil and infrastructure work. She started procuring work through alternate delivery in 1996 while working in the Midwest winning her first DBIA National Award for a WWTP in Andover, Kansas.

Linnell joined Crowder Construction Company and moved to North Carolina 18 years ago. Crowder completes work throughout the Southeast as a mid-sized water/wastewater contractor. Her focus has been on delivering projects through methods that have included Design-Build, CMAR, and negotiated work for public, private, and federal clients.

Linnell has been involved as a founding member of the DBIA Carolinas Chapter and the DBIA Central Virginia Chapter. Linnell currently sits on the Board for the DBIA Southeast Region and DBIA Mid-Atlantic Region.
